SHIPPING INFORMATION

**Please give this information to your managing veterinarian. Semen orders are only accepted from managing vets/clinics and NOT mare owners. This helps ensure we receive all the necessary information needed to ship on the initial phone call. Thank you for understanding.****

Collection Schedule:

Stallions are collected Monday, Wednesday, Friday. We strongly recommend getting on the collection list the day before. Confirmation/cancellation must be received by 8am MST.

Saw Ranch can ship via FedEx overnight delivery or flying for same day delivery.

PLEASE NOTE! We stand several stallions that are frozen semen only! Please verify in advance if the stallion has cooled semen available.

Frozen Semen:

Frozen semen must be ordered well in advance. We typically run a long waiting list on dry shippers and orders are processed in the order they are received. The mare will likely be missed if the order is placed when she's already in heat.

How To Order:

PHONE: (719) 332-4223 Call or Text

Semen order are only accepted by call or text. We take a high volume of calls on a single line and do not answer calls while collecting or processing semen! If we do not answer please leave a voicemail with full details of your order. Texting orders is also accepted.

With your order please list ALL of the following. If you're missing any information please call back.

- ~ Stallion Name
- ~ Mare's REGISTERED name, barn names are not accepted!
- ~ Mare owner's name.
- ~ Are you ordering for FedEx or Flying?
- ~ Please quickly list your address or airport code (3 letter code, not the airport name please)
- ~ Are you confirming now or in the morning?
- ~ Please do not order any further than one day in advance of the collection day.

Container Return:

Please return the empty Equitainer, Box, or Dry Shipper no later than the day after it's received. Containers that are not returned, or returned with missing components, will be charged replacement fees. Please make sure all contents are included.
